

June 9, 2024

We completed our study of the book of Habakkuk on Wednesday night. We saw the deep cries of Habakkuk in the beginning of the book. He asked God the why's and how long, Lord? We saw God respond to his cries helping Habakkuk to understand that He is sovereign and very much in control and that He is at work bringing things to a greater purpose. In the end of the book we see God has recharged Habakkuk with His responses giving him the energy and the perseverance he needed for the battle. Habakkuk ends the book with praises to the Lord. Habakkuk still had the same circumstances as when he cried to God in chapter 1, but God had moved to change Habakkuk in the storm. God had strengthened and grown Habakkuk's faith in the "why's of life"!

The Lord God is our strength and He will help us walk through the battles of life. Give Him praise as He is always at work though we may not understand what He is working to accomplish. He is very much present. He is very much in control. He can be trusted!
